

SITE PLAN

In order to process the development permit application, all submissions must include a completed site plan map of the proposed project; submission of an incomplete site plan map will be considered as an incomplete application and returned to the applicant.

